On the outskirts of a city there is a small burger shack.

It's no regular fast food joint. You see, this restaurant is owned and operated by NINJA. Fear not sacred customer, as they only wish to serve. This is Max, the manager. He leads this rag-tag team of chef Shinobi. A ninja that has seen many seasons, Max enjoys passing down his knowledge to the staff. It's been told that at times he can talk too much, but you know what they say; knowing is half the battle. The other half is attacking from the shadows. Here is the rest of the killer cooking crew.

This is Jade.

She works as the restaurants cashier. Strong, loyal and studious, she is also competitive and a bit demanding. Jade always does things by the book. This is why Max can trust her with taking command whenever he must leave. She will make a good manager one day. For now she tends to the customers with her great public relations and tends to the enemies with her katana.

This is chief Doughnut. A hard working individual who is rather soft spoken. That is, unless you tamper with his kitchen! To mess with his grill is to call a fiery wrath upon ones self. He likes to experiment with new dishes and always has an extra burger on hand. He has great strength but is not much of a fighter. His favorite weapon is a razor sharp spatula.

Steve is one of the delivery ninja. Quick footed and quick witted, Steve likes to throw jokes with his Shurikens. This has caused him to get on the nerves of some of his co- workers. Despite his wisecracking, prank playing, sleeping on the job, lunch stealing, constant lateness and back talking, Steve has a lot of potential to become a great ninja. His loyalty to delivering a meal on time is never in question.

Minja is the other delivery ninja. Like Max, he's a veteran in the ninja profession. He has a short vocabulary and a shorter fuse. Despite his small stature he is an aggressive and deadly warrior. Minja has a habit of sleeping in the storage room.

Our story does not begin with honor, rather misguided youth.

Some time later.

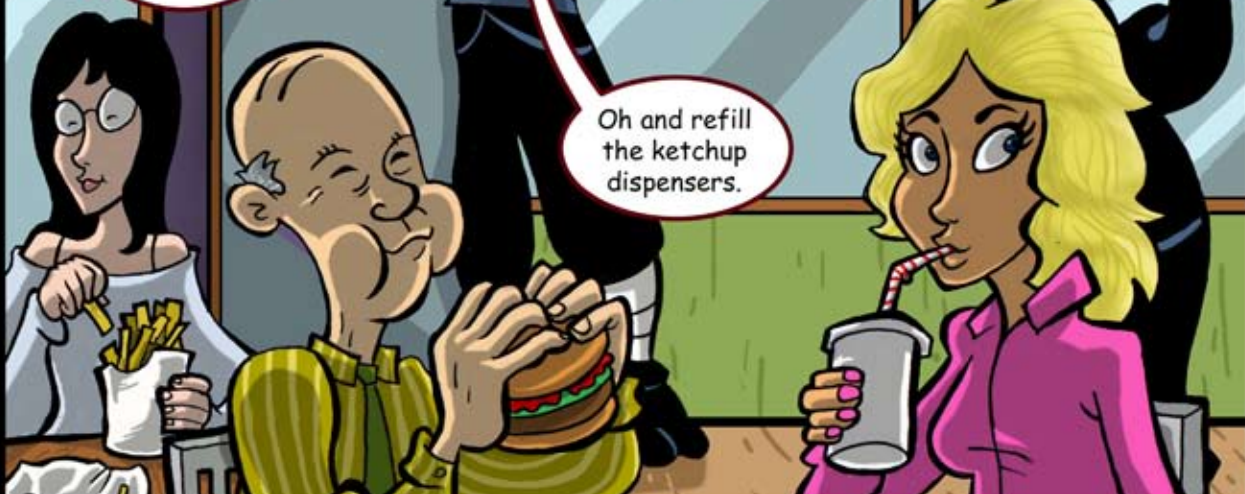

Jade I'm going to investigate the cemetery across the street.

Yes SIR!

I'm leaving you in charge. Now remember to use the wisdom of your ancestors, the courage of a warrior and always act with honor.

Oh and refill the ketchup dispensers.

The manager's been gone for a while now.

Looks like I'll have to deal with these customers first.

Hmmm.
Something isn't right,
but...

Can I take your order?

Um... That's not on the menu.
What else can I get you?

BRAINS

Try again.

BRAINS

We have burgers?

BRAINS

OK no more jokes.

BRAINS

If you say
"BRAINS" one more time, your gonna be on the business end of my katana.

So what would you like to eat?

I'LL HAVE WHAT HE'S HAVING

I don't know what has brought you guys to this restaurant (maybe the smell of burgers?) but there's only room for one...

Uh.. Zombies?

Hello... This is my big entrance with the shotguns...

HEY! Why isn't anyone paying attention to me!?

Oh... Fair enough.

Here, take this while I carry this poor girl to the kitchen.

I keep telling you I can walk just fine.

So brave.

OK Steve, knock it in.

No problem Jade.

I'll just use
my super secret
Shinobi skill...

HADOUKOAT!

CRACK

Any last words?

I don't get it! The guns and explosions had no effect but a single match turns the monster into a pile of dust?

The guns had no honor. Sometimes doing the right thing means forgetting the rules. I've learned that now.

No Jade. It's cause you added tempura batter. See? It's written on the canisters you pulled out.

Can't you read the label Jade? Look right here; T-E-M-P-U-R-A.

But honor

Honorable Manager!

Good work everyone. While I dealt with the zombies outside, it's good to know that you all could protect the inside.

But manager? The restaurant is in shambles.

But we've been through worse.

Like the time Robot Pirates attacked us using Viking Monkeys?

Yes, Good times. Now if we're going to have this place open for the morning we're going to have to start cleaning right now. Everyone pick up a broom or garbage bag!

There's still unanswered questions; like why did the zombies come here?

And will the attacked customers prefer free drink or fry coupons?

And is it necrophilia if somethings un-dead?
