

Hello Tomorrow,

Share on

This time capsule is more than just a collection of objects from 2015. It is a repository of our hearts, hopes and dreams for tomorrow – 50 years in the future. These 50 items are some of the things that make us Singaporean. So when you take them out in 2065, take a moment to go through each item - they represent our thoughts and wishes to you. We hope that you will laugh, cry and see life through our eyes. So that our memories will also be your memories.

Love,
Today
