check list:

1. cardboard
2. marker
3. scissors
4. various sizes of cardboard tube
5. piece of wire
6. masking tape
7. newspaper
8. glue mix (white glue mixed with water)
*you can also use papier-mâché paste
9. paintbrush
10. paint

Make papier-mâché paste!

Mix 1/2 cup of flour with 1 cup of water and add a pinch of salt. Mix well.

Heads up - this project does require "dry" times.

1

On the piece of cardboard, draw a foot shape.

2

Use scissors to cut out the foot.

3

Make cuts all around both ends of a cardboard tube.

4

Fold back the flaps, place the cardboard tube onto the heel of the foot and tape it down with masking tape.

5

Tape a square piece of cardboard on top of the cardboard tube.

6

Bend some wire into a loop and tape it to the top of the cardboard with the loop pointing in the same direction as the toes. This will let you hang your foot on the wall.

Cut open a small cardboard tube and spread it out. Now cut a U-shape out of one end of the cardboard tube so it fits snug against the monster's leg.

8

Tape the cardboard tube into place.

9

Cover the leg in crumpled newspaper and tape it into place. This will make your monster leg bigger.

10

Crumple newspaper into balls and tape them where the monster toes would be. Also, create the pads and heel of the foot by crumpling up newspaper and taping it in place.

11

Cover the entire monster foot in masking tape. This will make it super strong.

12

Create sharp toenails by cutting cardboard into triangles and tape them onto the bottom of the toes.

13

Dip newspaper strips into the glue mix (or papier-mâché paste) and stick them on the monster foot in every direction. Cover the entire foot in two layers.

14

Once you're finished, set aside to dry.

15

Now, paint your monster foot any colour you like. Make sure you paint the bottom of the foot as well because you'll see the bottom when your foot is hanging on the wall.

16

Once you're finished painting, set it aside to dry.

When you hang your creation on the wall, it will be like a monster is bursting through... feet first! Now that's Artzooka!!
