

Play "I Spy"

While on the train or in the car, play a game of "I Spy" with your child. Have your child select an object and say "I spy with my little eye something that is _____", filling in the blank with a descriptive word. Encourage your child to use as much vocabulary as possible by describing the object in great detail, such as the colour, texture, size, what it does and where it might be.

